
"The library was my favorite part": a strengths-based approach to library instruction in summer programs

Anna Michelle Martinez-Montavon, Melissa Harden

Publication Date

09-12-2023

License

This work is made available under a CC BY-NC-SA 4.0 license and should only be used in accordance with that license.

Citation for this work (American Psychological Association 7th edition)

Martinez-Montavon, A. M., & Harden, M. (2021). "The library was my favorite part": a strengths-based approach to library instruction in summer programs (Version 1). University of Notre Dame.
<https://doi.org/10.7274/r0-bgbb-0d07>

This work was downloaded from CurateND, the University of Notre Dame's institutional repository.

For more information about this work, to report or an issue, or to preserve and share your original work, please contact the CurateND team for assistance at curate@nd.edu.

Summer Programs and Libraries: A Partnership

1

What summer programs currently exist at your institution?

Who is the audience for these programs?

2

What are learning outcomes for the program(s)?

How do the students use information (in their everyday lives and in the program)?

3

Where can the library come in as a partner to help students build off of these skills and experiences?